DISCLAIMER

We, the exhibitor and parent/guardian, certify that we have read, understand, and will abide by all the rules and regulations of the Cypress-Fairbanks ISD Livestock Show Association. This includes any health and safety protocols deemed necessary based on federal, state, county, or District guidance.

Eligibility: Following the procedures to purchase, enter, and raise an animal for the CFISD Livestock Show does not guarantee eligibility to participate in the show or sale. As noted in the rules and regulations, the exhibitor understands that they must be eligible to compete at the livestock show based on UIL and Cypress-Fairbanks ISD guidelines. Ineligibility to compete may result from failing grades and/or placement at an alternative learning campus. In addition, students must be enrolled in an agri-science class at least one semester of the current school year, paid FFA members, and owe no fees or fines to the local FFA chapter. In the event the exhibitor is ineligible to compete, said animal will not be allowed on the show grounds to participate in the show or sale and project-related expenses are non-refundable.

Liability: Upon acceptance of this entry, as consideration therefore, I/We, the undersigned (acting also on behalf of the undersigned's agents of family), hereby (a) release each of Cypress-Fairbanks Independent School District Livestock Show Association (each Herein called—Indemnitee), employees and other acting on behalf of indemnitee, from any claim and cause of action for loss or damage to animals or property and for injury to or death of person (each herein called —Claim), regardless of how such Claim is occasioned by whom, and (b) agree to indemnify and hold harmless indemnitee and such others acting on behalf of indemnitee from any Claim brought by anyone caused in whole or in part in any way arising out of any action or in action of undersigned. Venue for purposes hereof shall lie in Harris County, Texas.

Insurance disclaimer: Cypress-Fairbanks ISD does not provide insurance for animal projects. Once the student takes possession of the animal and leaves the selection area, CFISD nor the CFISD Livestock Show Association is responsible for any expenses related to the health and welfare of the animal. This includes reimbursement of expenses due to accident, illness, or death. Students, and parents, are advised to consider purchasing insurance through an outside agency.

Drug residue testing: The undersigned hereby consents and agrees that the animal(s) described on this entry application may, at the discretion of the Cypress-Fairbanks Independent School District Livestock Show Association, be tested for unauthorized use of medications or drugs. We further certify that we will not administer this market entry with any substance not approved by the FDA and/or USDA for this species. (For example, we will not give a substance labeled as a swine feed/supplement to poultry.) This entry is not, nor will it be, within any withdrawal time relative to the administration of any drug, chemical, or feed additive approved by the FDA and/or USDA by the time the animal(s) is officially checked-in by the Association. As condition for participation in the show, every exhibitor must agree to submit this animal(s) for testing at any time after check-in. The Association reserves the right to perform any test, including but not limited to tissue, blood and/or urine laboratory analysis, on the grand and reserve champions, along with a random group of animals from each division. The exhibitor and his/her parent/guardian must be present during the collection for testing and must witness the sample; thus verifying the sample to be properly collected and prepared for analysis. The Cypress-Fairbanks ISD Livestock Show Association reserves the right to condemn and/or disqualify any animal, either alive or dead, found in violation of the use of any drug, chemical, or feed additive as described above and the exhibitor will forfeit all awards and sale proceeds and be subject to testing at future Cypress-Fairbanks ISD Livestock Shows. If an animal is disqualified for testing positive and/or the carcass condemned at slaughter, the disqualification will not impact class or overall placing for that species.

DNA testing: The undersigned hereby consents and agrees that a DNA sample may be collected from the animal described on this entry application as part of the selection process. In addition, consent will be given to allow an additional DNA sample to be collected for the purposes of running a comparison DNA test if the entry places 1st or 2nd in their class and/or if the CFISD Livestock Show Association Rules Committee determines there is a valid question of ownership. If the owner refuses the collection of the initial DNA sample or a sample to be compared to the initial sample, or if the sample comes back from testing and it does not match the initial DNA sample, the entry is disqualified and the exhibitor forfeits all awards and all sale money (premium, freezer, gifts) collected through the CFISD FFA Livestock Show Association. In addition, any future CFISD Livestock Show entries of this exhibitor are subject to DNA testing.

Medical Treatment: If an animal requires emergency treatment while the animal is on the Show grounds, only a licensed veterinarian will be allowed to administer any drug, chemical, or feed additive upon approval of the Cypress-Fairbanks ISD LSA Rules Committee. All treatment costs are the responsibility of the exhibitor. Should an animal receive treatment requiring a fifteen (15) day or less withdrawal period, the exhibitor will feed the animal for the duration of the withdrawal period. This special circumstance only applies to an animal requiring approved emergency treatment after weigh-in; it does not apply to preexisting treatment before weigh-in at the show.

Payments: Within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the buyer's information, students are required to have completed the "Checklist for Students Upon Completion of the Show" located in the LSA Exhibitor Handbook. This includes, but is not limited to, up-to-date record books, along with thank you note delivery.

NOTE: Payments to students will be withheld until pledged funds are received for the purchase of the animal(s) or gift(s). Any pledged funds not received may be deducted from the payment to the student.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

- Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:
- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
 - I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
 - I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
 - The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
